

EASB STATEMENT - Promotion & Relegation for 2018/19 Premier Junior Tour

We are pleased to confirm that the qualification for the 2018/19 Premier Junior Tour has now been finalised.

Of the 32 players that were eligible for this seasons PJT, 3 will be ineligible next season due to age restrictions, and a further 9 are not eligible due to not competing in the minimum number of events this season.

This means that the 20 players listed below, all remain eligible for the 2018/19 Premier Junior Tour.

Jack Harris	Ryan Davies	Jed Mann	Mark Lloyd
Manasawin Phetmalaikul	Hamim Hussain	Sean Maddocks	Sean McAllister
Reggie Edwards	Jenson Kendrick	Harry Gosney	Riley Parsons
Lennard Cripps	Michael Joyce	Paul Deaville	Callum Beresford
Luke Pinches	Kayden Brierley	Hayden Staniland	Callum Costello

This leaves a further 12 places to fill, and based on the total number of entries received on the Regional Junior Tour this season, they will be filled as follows:

Top 2 players from Midlands RJT

Top 3 players from South RJT

Top 5 players from North RJT

2 players from Junior Play-Offs.

This seasons Junior Play-Offs takes place on 3rd June at Midlands Snooker Academy, and will consist of 8 players made up as following:

2 players from South RJT

2 players from Midlands RJT

4 players from North RJT

The players who qualify from the Regional Junior Tour will be contacted after the final events of the season.
